Speaker/author family name:
Institution/Company

(hereinafter "you")

Regarding

Presentation n°:
Presentation title:
Session:	Type:
	Name:
	Date &amp; Time:

In the permanent ambition to support the rheumatology community with the best available information and education, EULAR offers this year a fully onsite congress experience. This will enable us to keep the spirit of the global rheumatology community alive and to address urgent questions with immediate relevance for patient care.

Your abstract has already been made available in the ARD publication, for which you have entered into a license agreement with BMJ and EULAR. Such license agreement remains unaffected by this Agreement.

Your poster and/or your presentation will be made available during our actual live days congress and on- demand to all participants.

To be able to do this, EULAR is asking you to grant EULAR a licence to your poster and/or presentation, including, slides, images, voice etc. (hereinafter the "Content").

1 License to EULAR

You herewith grant to EULAR the worldwide, perpetual right to use, share, copy, store, archive and redistribute the Content in any medium or format. Except if otherwise agreed by EULAR on a case by case basis, the license is exclusive during the whole duration of the onsite and on-demand platform, 31 July 2023, 23:59 CEST.

EULAR may use, share, copy, store and redistribute the Content free of charge or at a fee for any target audience.

EULAR may mandate any third party of its choice to execute the acquired rights.

EULAR will always indicate your name, the title of the Content and the date and event at which you have presented the Content.

2 Remuneration

Considering the projects, aims and objectives of EULAR, you provide the license stated above on a complimentary basis.

3 Confirmation and Warranty

You confirm and warrant that the Content does not infringe third party rights. In particular, you confirm that:

- You do not infringe copyrights of third parties when you introduce text, images, videos or other material, nor do you infringe personality rights, nor do you violate professional or medical secrecy obligations. Specifically, you will not introduce images of identifiable patients unless the patient has explicitly consented in writing or in another text form.
- You are not subject to any law or bound to any agreement, including but not limited to an agreement with an employer, research institution or provider of a grant or bursary that would prevent you of granting the rights as considered in this Agreement.

4 Applicable Law and Place of Jurisdiction

This Agreement is subject to material Swiss law, to the exclusion of conflict of law rules. The exclusive place of jurisdiction is at the seat of EULAR.
